Jay Franke began his formal dance training at Booker T. Washington High School for the Performing and Visual Arts in Dallas, Texas. In 1993 he was selected as a Finalist for Presidential Scholar in the Arts, and accepted into The Juilliard School, where he furthered his studies by working with choreographers such as Benjamin Harkarvy, Glen Tetley, Igal Perry and Lila York.

Upon receiving his BFA in Dance from The Juilliard School, Franke went to work with the Twyla Tharp Dance Company, "THARP!". Jay relocated to Chicago in 1999 to join Hubbard Street Dance Chicago. He also danced with Chicago companies such as: The 58 Group, The Lyric Opera Ballet Chicago, and founded the non-profit "Chicago Arts Project" in 2001 to implement arts education programs in some of the areas inner city schools. He has been a member of the Lar Lubovitch Dance Company since 2005 and is proud to call Chicago home.
